Who's Who in the Show

Audrey-Marie Craddick [Beth Finnegan] - Audrey-Marie is thrilled to be joining the cast of Jerry Finnegan's Sister in her Eclipse Theatre debut! Before the COVID shutdown, she had most recently appeared in Hilliard Arts Council's production of The Fantasticks as well as Leading Ladies with Curtain Players. Other favorite credits include: Into the Woods (Rapunzel), CATS (Tantomile), Urinetown (Little Sally), and Fiddler on the Roof (Hodel). Outside of theatre, Audrey enjoys playing with her dogs Harper and Oakley, running and spending way too much money on Starbucks. All her love to her family for their endless support. Grandma, this one's for you.

Michael Day [Stage Manager] - Michael is making his Eclipse Theatre debut stage managing Jerry Finnegan's Sister. In the past, he has stage managed Our Town, Dinner With Friends, and Proof, all at Curtain Players, as well as directed several shows there, the most recent being Whose Afraid of Virginia Woolf. In January, he will be directing One Slight Hitch here at Eclipse, as well as Slow Food in December 2022. In his "real life", he's a programmer geek for income, and enjoys reading, eating, napping, and being a dog and cat dad.

Nick Martin [Brian Dowd] - Nick is a Columbus-born actor and glad to be back in action in his hometown. He recently received a BFA in Acting from Wright State University and spent the past year finding new ways to grow as a performer and producer of theatre and film. He most recently appeared in Columbus as Don in Nighthawks (Red Herring Productions) and is ecstatic to be working again with both new and familiar faces. Other recent credits include Dr. Thomas Stockmann (An Enemy of the People), Mal Beineke (The Addams Family), and Demetrius (A Midsummer Night's Dream). When he isn't performing, Nick enjoys astronomy, computers, and telling people cool science facts that no one asked for. He is especially grateful to Brian, the production team, and to you all for sharing in this story, and hopes to see you after the show!

Brian A. Palmer [Director] – Brian served as the Director for tonight's performance. This is the fourth production that he has done with Eclipse Theatre Company. Past credits include: Director for Nighthawks [Red Herring Productions], Director for The Fantasticks [King Avenue Players], and Director for And Then There Were None [Out of the Box Community Theatre]. Brian would like to thank Anthony, Carri, and Jordan..

I AM
CHRIS LEYVA.
WRITING IS MY ART.

Writing the play is only the beginning of a longer process. I love when it's time for other artists to come into the process—a director, actors, designers, an audience. I love when they have a chance to play in a world I've created and give flesh to characters I'd only met in my imagination. The community of artists in Columbus is diverse. It's constantly active. There's always something going on and there's always something new in the works. I'm Chris Leyva, writing is my art and there's no place I'd rather make it.
